The Bulletin: Friday 8th November 2024

Dear Parents

Thank you to all the parents who have been in school this week to discuss their child's progress so far this year at Parents' Consultations. It is always reassuring to hear the positive feedback that you give, as well as any concerns you may have. Thank you to all the staff who have had two very late nights in school, time for a rest now.

This weekend, I am looking forward to representing our school with our Head Boys & Girls at the Remembrance Parade in Bingley. On Sunday, at 10.45am, we will parade through Bingley to the Cenotaph where the service will take place. Our Head Boys & Girls will be laying a wreath on behalf of Lady Lane Park School. It would be lovely to see any of you at the service.

On Monday, Reverend Weaver will be in school for his Remembrance Assembly and at 11am, all classes will be pausing and reflecting during a two minutes silence. Of course, our younger pupils will be reflecting in an appropriate way for them, I don't think any young child can be silent for two minutes!

This week has been jam-packed with activities and learning all the way through school, I hope you are able to see just a snapshot of what your children are involved in by looking at the pages in the Bulletin this week. It has been particularly great to hear about how our children are accessing our local area. In The Prince of Wales Park, Form 1 have been Gruffalo Hunting and, this afternoon, Form 2, are using all their senses as they search for signs of Autumn. Yesterday, Form 4 visited The St Ives Estate as part of their current Geography topic. We are so lucky to have such immediate access to such beautiful landscapes to explore.

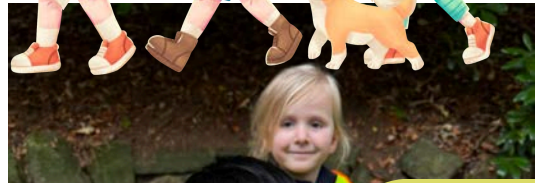

Next week we will be marking the start of the Anti-Bulling week by holding our own 'Odd Socks Day'. Everyone is encouraged to wear odd socks with their uniform in return for a £1 donation to the Anti-Bullying Alliance.

On Friday it is Children in Need and this year's theme is 'Challenge Yourself'. All children are invited to come to school dressed as a 'Super Hero' or in the traditional Children in Need 'Spots'. Mrs Fairchild and our Heads of School Council, Mimi and Seb, have also been busy organising a Bun Sale, which will take place on Friday during the school day. We greatly appreciate any baked donations from Thursday morning onwards. Please remember we are a 'Nut Free' school and also have some children who are Gluten Free. If you are an experienced Gluten Free baker and would like to bring something in, please do. I have tried to bake Gluten Free before and I know there seems to be a knack to it! All funds raised from the bun sale will go to supporting this fantastic charity.

On Thursday, The Travelling Book Fair will be in school and all classes will visit the fair with their teachers. If you would like to pop in and look for some Christmas present ideas you will be able to do this from 8.00am or after school. The fair is located in the UVI classroom.

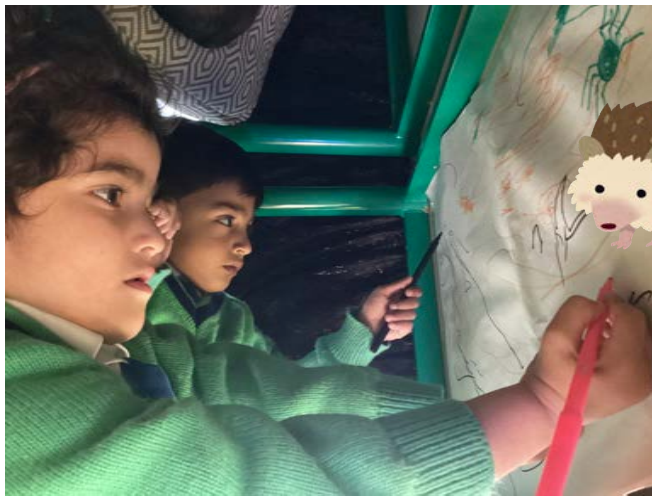

We will finish next week with The Friends' Winter Wonderland Disco, please see more details below. More information will be available on Monday about how to get your tickets - but don't worry, you can always get these on the door.

Have a lovely weekend

LEARNING ABOUT :

This week in Kindergarten, we've been learning all about hibernation! The children discovered how animals like hedgehogs and dormice prepare for the colder months by finding cozy spots to sleep through winter.

To bring this idea to life, we created our very own mark making den! The children had so much fun decorating the den and using it as a space to practice their early writing and drawing skills while imagining they're hibernating animals.

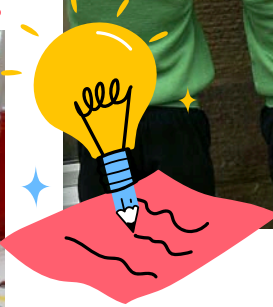

Such a wonderful way to combine creativity, learning, and a love for nature!

Miss Raw's Table Tennis Report

On Wednesday I took 5 boys to play Table Tennis at Bradford Grammar. James and George were playing for the first time in competition while Abdullah, William and Zakariya have represented school before.

From the moment we arrived the boys started playing games. Mr Crabtree was Keeping track on results while I was scoring some games. This made it a little tricky to know how the boys were doing. But they seemed happy!

An hour and half later we finally finished.

Although I have not received the official results yet,I know that all boys won some games which is great. Well done boys. Results will follow. Miss Raw
